

Doula Association of Alberta

For DAA Members & Prospective Members

Thank you for completing this important step toward your DAA membership.

This letter is provided to assist you in obtaining a Criminal Record Check with Vulnerable Sector Check from your local police service or RCMP detachment.

What to do

1. Print this letter.

Bring the printed letter with you to your local police service or RCMP detachment.

2. Request your check.

3. Once your check has been completed, upload your valid document through the DAA membership application or renewal process.

Does the letter need your name on it?

Some police services or RCMP detachments may require the requesting organization's letter to include your name.

If your detachment requires a personalized letter, please email us at:

doassociationofalberta@gmail.com

Let us know that you need a personalized Vulnerable Sector Check letter, and we will provide one with your name included.

A note about fees

The cost of a Criminal Record Check or Vulnerable Sector Check is determined by each individual police service or RCMP detachment.

We hope that presenting this DAA letter will allow you to have the fee waived, however, fee waivers are at the discretion of your local detachment and cannot be guaranteed by the DAA.

Sincerely,

Doula Association of Alberta

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter confirms that the individual presenting this document is applying for or maintaining membership with the Doula Association of Alberta.

As part of the Association's membership requirements, members are required to obtain a current Criminal Record Check with Vulnerable Sector Check.

The purpose of this screening is to support professional standards, public trust, and the safety of the individuals and families our members may serve.

Please note:

- The applicant is not an employee of the Doula Association of Alberta.
- The applicant does not receive compensation from the Association.
- The Criminal Record Check and Vulnerable Sector Check are required solely to satisfy the Association's membership requirements.
- We respectfully request that any fee exemptions or reduced-fee provisions available for volunteer or membership-related screening be considered where applicable.

Members of the Doula Association of Alberta may provide non-medical support in a variety of settings, including pregnancy, birth, postpartum, pregnancy and infant loss, end-of-life care, and support for seniors or other vulnerable individuals.

Should additional information be required, please contact the Doula Association of Alberta.

Thank you for your consideration,

Sincerely,

Milly Friedman
